

No. 16

A very rare Group of three Lozenge shaped
Lacquer Brushpots, Bitong
Wanli six-character mark and of the Period
Ming Dynasty, Wanli period (1573-1619)

Each of the three of tall lozenge shape, raised on small corner feet. Two decorated in red lacquer with finely incised key-fret border at the top, one with a wan, the other with a swastika and cash diaper ground to the four sides. The third lacquered in a marble effect in yellow, red and black. All three with black lacquer to base and interior. The base with six-character "da ming wan li nian zhi" mark painted in red.

H 5 in W 4 in

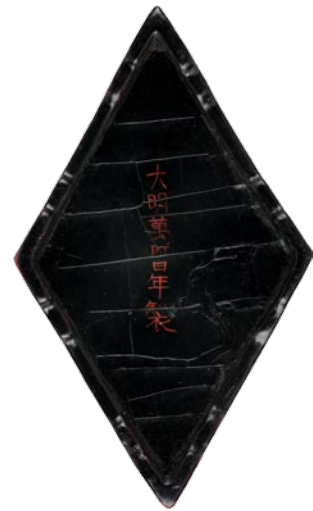

明萬曆 木胎髹漆雕飾菱形筆筒一組三件

Mark with six-character
"da ming wan li nian zhi"

Mark with six-character
"da ming wan li nian zhi"

Mark with six-character
"da ming wan li nian zhi"

