

No. 30

A rare Large Grayish-Green and Russet Jade Figure of a Recumbent Elephant
Ming Dynasty (1368-1644)

---

The recumbent elephant lying on his four feet, head slightly turned to the left, with its trunk tucked under it, pointing to the right. The tail with finely incised hair markings, flicked to the left rear haunch. All finely carved with very nice detail using the shape of the boulder to its best advantage.

---

H 4 in L 6 in

明 黑白玉巧雕大象

